I. ARTICLE I: SENATE AUTHORITY AND PROCEDURE

A. Authority of Senate

The Student Senate's (hereafter, "the Senate") authority is governed by these Student Senate By-Laws (hereinafter, "these By-Laws") and the Student Senate Constitution (hereafter, "the Senate Constitution"). The Senate may consider, among other things, budget, Law School student organization (hereinafter, "student organization") recognition, and student advocacy issues.

B. Quorum Required

All meetings of the Senate shall require a quorum of at least one-half (1/2) of the Senate.

C. Voting Thresholds

Votes of the Senate shall pass if supported by a majority of Senators present at a meeting at which a quorum exists, except when the Senate Constitution or these By-Laws require a higher percentage. For the avoidance of doubt or confusion, each Senator present at a meeting at which quorum exists can either vote: "Yes," "No," or "Abstain." For a measure to pass, the "Yes" votes must constitute a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum exists.

II. ARTICLE II: SENATE COMMITTEES

A. Committee Reporting Requirements

From time to time, the Chair or a Co-Chair of each internal Senate Committee and the University Senator shall report to the Senate on relevant matters before their respective Senate Committee or representative body at a Regular Meeting of the Senate.

B. Standing Committees

The Senate shall have the following ten (10) standing committees: (1) The Budget Committee; (2) The Community Action Committee; (3) The Constitution Committee; (4) The Graduation Committee; (5) The Housing and Facilities Committee; (6) The Orientation and Admitted Students Committee; (7) The Student Life and Social Activities Committee; (8) The Student Organization Recognition Committee; (9) The Sustainability Committee; and (10) The Wellness Committee.

1. THE BUDGET COMMITTEE

a) Budget Committee Overview:

The Budget Committee shall allocate and distribute the funds generated by the Student Activity Fee to student organizations.

- b) Budget Committee Chair:
The Senate Treasurer shall serve as the Chair of the Budget Committee.
- c) Budget Procedures:
Before the budgeting process begins, the Treasurer shall finalize and present to the Executive Board the detailed procedures that will be used by the Budget Committee to allocate funds to student organizations and the structure of the standardized forms that will be used as funding applications and funding appeals.
- d) Application for Funds:
At the beginning of each semester, the Budget Committee shall solicit funding requests from all recognized student organizations. Each student organization shall be informed of the application and appeals process. This information shall include the standards that the Budget Committee will follow in allocating funds. The Budget Committee shall distribute a standard funding request form to be used as the application for funding by every student organization requesting funds. The recognized student organizations shall be given at least one week after notification to submit funding applications.
- e) Allocation:
In drafting an allocation budget proposal, the Budget Committee shall consider, among other things, the size of the organization, its past performance, its fiscal responsibility, whether or not it receives funds from other sources, whether or not its programs will be held at the Law School, and the impact of the student organization's events and programs on the Law School community. The Committee shall not discriminate against student organizations on the basis of their political, social or religious goals or beliefs. The Budget Committee shall not allocate funds to any student organization that is not open to every member of the Law School community, nor shall it allocate funds to any event that is not open to every member of the Law School community. Student organizations and individuals receiving funds from the Senate shall be under an obligation to publicize all events of the student organization in a manner reasonably calculated to give notice to all members of the Law School community.
- f) Distribution of Funds:
Following the Budget Committee's approval of the allocation budget proposal, the Treasurer shall distribute the allocated funds to each student organization. All student organizations receiving funding from the Senate shall be required to keep receipts of their expenses and an accurate ledger.

g) Appeals Process:

After the Budget Committee approves the allocation budget proposal, the Treasurer shall notify student organizations of their funding allocation (including informing a student organization that they will not be receiving any funding). If a student organization is dissatisfied with its allocation (including an allocation of zero dollars ($0)), the student organization may appeal to the Budget Committee by submitting a revised funding request. If the revised funding request also does not result in a change in the funding allocation from the Budget Committee, the student organization may appeal to the Student Senate. The appeal must be made within one week of the notification of the funding amount and considered by the Senate at the next Regular meeting. The appeal shall be made on the standard appeals form that shall be made available by the Treasurer. After the Senate considers and votes upon all appeals submitted pursuant to this section, the funding allocation (including an allocation of zero dollars ($0)) shall be final.

h) Other Funding Requests:

During the semester, the Budget Committee shall be convened to hear new requests for funding from new and currently-recognized student organizations on an ad-hoc basis. The Senate Treasurer shall promptly disclose all such disbursements to the full Senate. Student organizations that receive funding under this subsection shall be subject to the same standards and auditing procedures as those student organizations receiving funding during the Fall and Spring budget cycles.

E. Certification of Results:

Within twenty-four hours after the recount request deadline, the Election Commission shall certify in writing that the referendum or election was held in accordance with the Senate Constitution and these By-Laws and that the results are correct and accurate. The certified tabulation shall be retained by the Senate Parliamentarian and entered into the Senate's permanent records.

VI. ARTICLE VI: REQUIREMENTS OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

A. Purpose:

The Columbia Law School Student Senate (“the Student Senate”) seeks to encourage the existence of a diverse offering of activities and associations that augment a student’s law school experience. Student organizations provide important opportunities to students during their law school careers to participate in interesting events and projects and exercise positions of leadership that may both enrich and enlighten their Columbia legal education.

B. Guidelines:

A recognized student organization shall be responsible at all times for following the guidelines set forth in this subsection (collectively, the “Guidelines”), the violation of which may subject the student organization to penalties determined at the reasonable discretion of the Student Senate, including, but not limited to, the revocation of recognition or Student Senate funding.

1. Beneficial Purpose:

The purpose of the student organization shall be sufficiently related to the law school community and sufficiently unrelated to the purpose of any other recognized organization so as to offer a distinct benefit to a substantial number of law school students. Activities of the organization shall benefit the Law School community.

2. Constitution:
All recognized student organizations shall adopt an official constitution. The student organization's constitution and any amendments or by-laws thereto shall be ratified by its membership. At a minimum, the constitution shall explicitly state the following: (a) the organization's name; (b) the organization's purpose; (c) the requirements for membership and leadership; (d) the procedure for selecting and removing leadership; (e) the duties of leadership; (f) the procedure for arriving at decisions; and (g) the Non-Discrimination Policy set forth below in Article VI(B)(5).

The student organization shall utilize any funds allocated to it by the Student Senate in accordance with the requirements set forth by the Student Senate's Budget Committee.

C. Recognition Process:

Any group of Columbia Law School students desiring recognition by the Student Senate as a student organization must petition according to the procedures set forth under this subsection. Any decisions made by the Student Organization Recognition Committee (“the Committee”) or the Student Senate to confer or deny recognition shall be based solely on the Guidelines set forth in this section above and the procedures set forth below.

1. Recognition of New Organizations or Organizations Submitting Revised Constitution or By-Laws:

Any organization not currently recognized by the Student Senate and all other organizations that have altered their constitution or by-laws since their last submission to the Student Senate must apply for recognition under this subsection.

a) Submission of Documents:

Recognition of a student organization under this subsection is contingent upon timely submission of the following to the Senate Parliamentarian:

- (1) A constitution meeting the requirements under Article VI(B)(2) above.
- (2) The names and email addresses of at least twelve (12) current members, including at least two (2) leaders responsible for the organization’s finances and record keeping. The Committee may waive any part of this requirement upon a group’s showing that its beneficial purpose does not require a standing membership.

(3) A completed application for recognition, as provided by the Student Senate.

b) Approval:

Except as provided under Article VI(C)(1)(c) for appeal, recognition shall be contingent upon the favorable recommendation of the Committee followed by majority approval of the Student Senate.

c) Appeal:

An organization failing to receive a favorable recommendation from the Committee shall be notified of this decision and permitted at least one opportunity to submit a revised application. If the revised application also fails to receive a favorable recommendation from the Committee, the organization may appeal to the Student Senate, which may confer recognition pursuant to Article VI(8) of the Senate Constitution and Article I of these By-Laws.

2. Automatic Renewal of Recognition for Currently Recognized Organizations:

Any student organization currently recognized by the Student Senate that has not altered its constitution or by-laws since its last submission to the Student Senate shall have its recognition automatically renewed upon annual submission of the following to the Student Senate Parliamentarian:

(1) The names and email addresses of at least two (2) leaders responsible for the organization's finances and record keeping.

(2) An affirmation that the organization's documents are unchanged since their last submission to the Student Senate and that the organization will continue to abide by them.

(a) If the organization's documents have been changed, the annual submission must include the updated documents. Failure to submit these documents may result in non-recognition by the Student Senate.

- (b) The Student Parliamentarian may conduct a periodic audit of student organizations' documents, and finding them missing or inconsistent with these By-Laws or the Student Senate Constitution, may require resubmission of documents for approval. Failure to resubmit documents by the subsequent recognition deadline will result in a club being considered inactive.

D. Grievance and Revocation of Recognition:

1. Accountability:

A recognized student organization shall be held accountable by the Student Senate for its adherence to both its own constitution and by-laws and the Guidelines under Article VI(B) (collectively, the "Governing Documents"). This subsection provides for a grievance procedure to enforce such accountability.

2. Grounds for Penalty:

A recognized student organization may have its recognition denied or revoked, or be subject to penalty specified by the Committee, either for failure to meet the requirements for recognition under Article VI(C)(1) or (C)(2), or, in the alternative, through the process described herein.

3. Other Authorities:

Notwithstanding any penalties assessed by the Student Senate, members of an organization, as well as students submitting perjured grievances, may remain subject to sanctions from other bodies, such as the University, the Law School, or the Attorney's Bar.

4. Grievance Procedure:

a) Standing:

Any student currently enrolled at Columbia Law School may submit to the Student Senate a grievance against a recognized organization alleging a violation of the Governing Documents.

b) Investigation:

Upon notice of grievance, the Committee shall investigate and determine the merit of such grievance.

c) Dismissal:

If the Committee determines the grievance to be without merit, it may dismiss the complaint without approval by the Student Senate. However, the complaining student may appeal any such decision to the Student Senate, which may either dismiss the complaint or require the Committee to reconsider the grievance pursuant to the procedures outlined below. The decision upon appeal to the Student Senate shall be final and binding.

d) Conformity:

If the Committee determines the grounds for such grievance are of merit, the Committee shall first meet with the accused student organization in an effort to resolve any such noncompliance. The student organization may remedy its noncompliance either by agreeing to conform its practices to the Governing Documents and make necessary reparations, if any, or, where such noncompliance does not otherwise violate the Guidelines, by revising the constitution or by-laws of the student organization. Any such alteration of the organization's constitution or by-laws, however, shall subject the organization to the recognition procedure described under Article VI(C)(1).

e) Hearing:

If the student organization denies the validity of the grievance, which, if accurate, would otherwise be of merit, the Committee shall hear from both the student organization and the complaining student and shall reach a determination based upon the testimony of the parties and a preponderance of the evidence, if any. Following such determination of the merits of the grievance, the Committee shall make its own recommendation for resolution, which may include dismissal of the grievance, revocation of the student organization's recognition, or other reasonably appropriate penalty.

f) Penalty:

If the Committee determines the complaint to be of merit, it may recommend a reasonably appropriate penalty to the Student Senate, which may invoke such penalty or fashion a more appropriate penalty by a majority of Senators present at a meeting at which a quorum exists, which decision shall be final and binding. The accused student organization shall have the right to plead its case before the Student Senate before such a vote is taken.

g) Bad Faith:

If at any time the Committee or the Student Senate believes an organization to be acting in bad faith during this procedure, such bad-faith action may submit the organization to additional penalty.

h) Term of Penalty:

A determination by the Student Senate to revoke recognition of a student organization shall remain in effect for the academic year in which such determination is made. The student organization for which recognition is revoked shall be permitted to reapply for recognition in the following academic year(s). However, in deciding on such a student organization's application for recognition, the Committee and the Student Senate may consider any prior adverse decisions against the organization.

E. Entering Defunct Status:

1. Deadline for Recognition Requests:

In coordination with the Senate's Budget Committee, the Chair of the Recognition Committee shall set a recognition deadline. Student groups may apply for belated recognition at any time during the semester.

2. Suspension of Account:

Student Services shall suspend the account of any previously recognized student organization that fails to be recognized at the recognition deadline in a given Fall Semester. These groups shall be considered defunct:

a) Groups That Fail to Meet Recognition Deadline:

If a student organization fails to be recognized due to a failure to meet the Fall deadline, its account shall remain in suspension for three semesters, at which point it is considered fully defunct. If the student organization is recognized again at any time during these three semesters, it shall immediately regain access to its account.

b) Groups That Are Affirmatively Denied Recognition:

If a student organization fails to be recognized due to an affirmative denial by the Committee, its account shall remain in suspension for five (5) semesters, at which point it is considered fully defunct. If the student group is recognized again at any time during these five semesters, it shall immediately regain access to its account.

3. Repossession of Funds:

Once a previously recognized student organization is fully and finally disbanded according to Article VI(E)(2), Student Services shall repossess any funds contained in the student organization's account.

a) Student Activity Fee Funds:

Repossessioned funds shall first be used to satisfy the disbanded student organization's debt, if any. Any such funds remaining thereafter shall be returned to the Student Senate.

b) Other Funds:

All other funds remaining in the disbanded student organization's account shall be disposed of by Student Services, in consultation with the Student Senate. Where appropriate, such funds may be used to satisfy the disbanded organization's debt, if any, in lieu of or in conjunction with any funds identified by Article VI(E)(3)(a) above.

4. Successor Groups:

If the Committee has reason to believe that a previously recognized student organization has reconstituted under a new name in order to avoid an incurred debt, it may affirmatively deny recognition. The burden shall be on the organization seeking recognition to show that its mission and target population are sufficiently different from the previously recognized student organization.

5. Other Privileges:

As soon as a student organization becomes fully and finally disbanded according to Article VI(E)(2), the Office of Student Services shall ensure that the student organization no longer has access to its Student Organization News and Information ("SONI") email account.
